

DENVER WOMEN TO FORM OWN PARTY

Equal Suffrage Body Incensed Because Man Is Secretary of Senate Committee.

DENVER, April 18.—Because United States Senator Charles S. Thomas didn't appoint a woman as secretary of the National Suffrage Committee of the United States Senate, and chose a mere man instead, the women of Colorado are planning to start a new party composed exclusively of women.

Declaring that they have been made the recipients of nothing but lemons in the history of their long service to the Republican and Democratic parties, the Colorado Equal Suffrage Association, composed of some of the most representative women of the State, is determined to "secede." The appointment by Senator Thomas of George Lang, an employee of the State Department, to the secretaryship of the suffrage committee is the last straw.

"Senator Thomas was elected by the women of Colorado," declared one indignant suffrage leader today. "Without our loyalty he would have been gathered to oblivion long ago."

Many Are Fitted.

"The position of secretary of the Senate Suffrage Committee is one for which a large number of women are eminently fitted by education and experience to fill. And for a Colorado Senator to have recognized the women by such an appointment would have meant a definite and effective recommendation of the suffrage cause."

"Time and again the women have fought in the Democratic party and wrested the banners of victory from the enemy when the enemy had the men running and had started to dance a saraband of triumph. And now the women are going to put forth the challenge. No more lemons."

To make that challenge effective, if possible, the Colorado Suffrage Association leaders are planning to make a demonstration of strength during the coming campaign in Denver for city commissionerships. It is planned to organize, in Denver, at least, a new party composed exclusively of women and devoted exclusively to the interests of the women. Standing together for a common cause, the women believe that they can overwhelm the mere male voters and practically dictate political affairs.

Votes for Women.

The leaders of the movement propose that the women, united, shall serve notice to the world that hereafter they will vote only for women. To this end it is proposed during the coming campaign to hold a parade of women and to invite participation in it by women's political organizations from all sections of Colorado.

Such a parade would bring the display of numerous transparencies setting forth the virtues of woman, demanding for a woman important political offices, and urging the women voters not to vote for men under any circumstances. Plans to organize a strictly women's party have been tried many times, but have never succeeded.

The backers of the present movement declared today that never before has such a movement been accompanied by the militant spirit which they hope to inject into it this time. For that reason they think it may be successful.

Confessed Crime List Of James B. Jennings; Arrested Forty Times

James B. Jennings (Kid Carter) list of confessed crimes, including a number committed in the West: Strangled Mildred Donovan, New Year eve. Shot William H. McPherson, New Year day. Had a hand in "several murders in the West."

Took part in a murder in Jackson, Mich., in 1910, for which his partner got a second degree sentence. "Stuck up" an old man named Hill, last year in Everett, and killed Mrs. Donovan because he thought she meant to "sneak" on him. Beat up Edward Cass in Everett so badly that the man is now in an asylum. Has been arrested forty times.

Memphis Police Send Man for Fugitive

An officer from Memphis, Tenn., is expected in Washington tomorrow to take over the custody of John E. Currie, former financial secretary of the housepainters' union in that city, who surrendered himself to the Washington police last night as a fugitive from justice. The man walked into headquarters last night and told Detective Howlett there was a shortage of $500 in his accounts.

Currie told the police that his downfall was due to cards and drink. He said he came to Washington two weeks ago.

Crackman Steals Shoes When Safe Fails Him

After hammering the knob and combination off the door, a would-be crackman who failed to open the safe in the office of the lumber yard of W. A. H. Church, Eighth and C streets southwest, consoling himself by stealing a pair of shoes from a drawer in one of the desks.

Investigation showed that the thief had entered by breaking the glass in a side window.

Fire Calls Installed.

Seven new fire alarm boxes recently installed in the various buildings occupied by the Department of Agriculture were put in commission today. The installation of the new alarm stations followed two mysterious fires in the department's buildings about three months ago. The fires occurred within two days of each other and at exactly the same hour of night.

ATTEMPT TO VERIFY CRIME CONFESSION

Authorities Anxious to Learn If Jennings Committed All Murders He Says He Did.

BOSTON, April 18.—Police authorities were busy today as a result of the dramatic confession of James B. Jennings, known as "Kid" Carter in pugilistic circles, that he was guilty of murders of which he was never suspected. He charged the police with starting him on the downward path.

Jumping up in the court room after he had been sentenced to life imprisonment for the killing of William P. McPherson, in a bar room, Jennings cried: "I killed Mildred Donovan. It's only one of the many murders I've committed. What do you think of that?" Jennings asserted that when he was young the police locked him up without reason, put him in a cell and beat him. "The police started me on the downward path," said Jennings. "You won't hear any kick from me. I have played my cards. I make this statement voluntarily, and I do not fear the chair. I have never done a day's work in my life."

Jennings, after his first wild rush of words, recited the remainder of his confession with the utmost unconcern. The session with the utmost unconcern.

They Say that the Domestic sugar industry has been given its chance and has not made good.

The Facts Are that the importance of an industry is in proportion to its purchasing ability of labor and material. This sugar industry distributes throughout the United States at least $110,000,000 annually. It has already lowered the price of sugar materially. If it is allowed to continue its expansion so that it will produce all the sugar consumed in the United States it will keep the price of sugar low and at the same time will distribute at least $220,000,000. Is not that worth while? Get The Facts.
